

Stations

more than a place in space

“A city (station) is more than a place in space;
it is a journey in time”

Patrick Geddes

More globally than city wide communities

Neighbourhoods become more important

More flexible working

Active aging population

Virtual and physical experience meshing

foresight

the future of retail

November 2012

ARUP

foresight

Living Workplace

ARUP

foresight

the future of retail

November 2012

ARUP

Physical stores are becoming experienced based

Multichannel customer experience will be the focus.

Local offer will interface with brand offer

Higher levels of operations and supply chain sustainability

NOW IN NEW B.R. LIVERY

Tri-ang
Regd Trade Mark

HORNBY

Model Railways

Tri-ang
Regd Trade Mark

HORNBY

(OPERATING) MAIL COACH SET

foresight

Living Workplace

ARUP

Permeable technological boundaries between work and home

Growth in Self Employment

Working life from ages 20-80

Employer-worker relationship moving from parent/ child to adult/adult.

Lynda Gratton, Shifting Labour Landscapes

Stations
more than a place in space